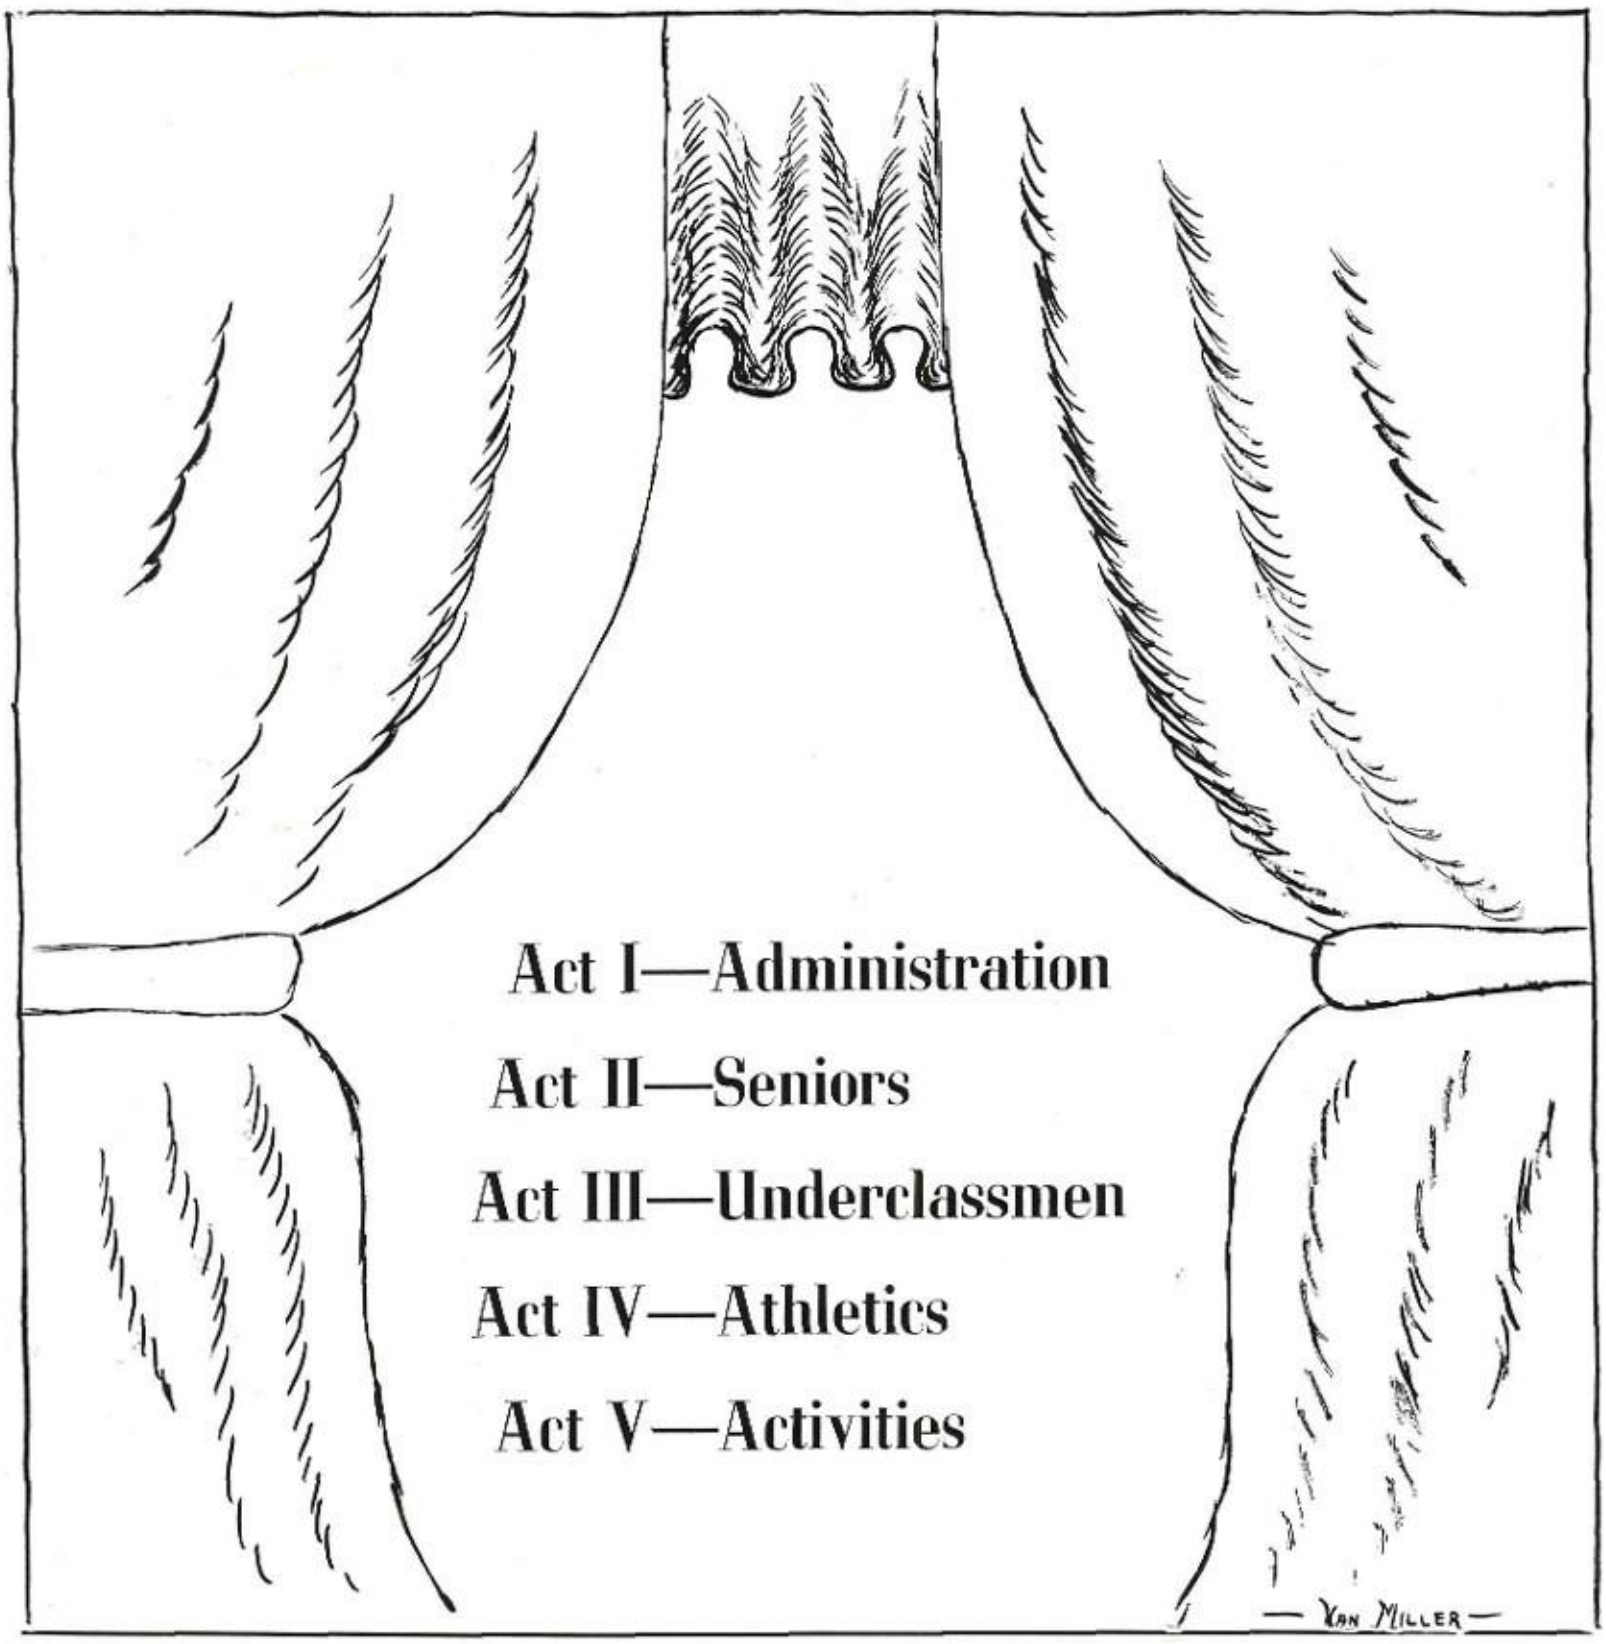
The Class of 1949 Presents

THE LODESTONE



Foreword

"All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players."

In this LODESTONE of 1949 we have reviewed the highlights of our three years' sojourn in Lebanon High School. As we assume major roles in life's great drama, let us not forget the valuable lessons learned in our daily association with our teachers and with our friends.

Dedication

A teacher in Lebanon High School long before the present building was erected, Mr. Yingst has made chemistry one of the most interesting courses in the curriculum. Never has he shirked the duties he believes to be his, even though they often necessitate his staying in school long after everyone else has gone home. His students know that Mr. Yingst is always ready and eager to give extra help to anyone that requests it. In addition to conducting his classes capably, Mr. Yingst is the financial manager of all Lebanon High School's athletic activities—one more task requiring both time and effort.

For these and many other reasons, the Class of 1949 is happy to dedicate its LODESTONE to Mr. William Paul Yingst, with every good wish and the hope that he may continue for many years his invaluable connection with Lebanon High School.

ALMA MATER

"OLD LEBANON HIGH"

Tune: "Heidelberg" from the "Prince of Pilsen"

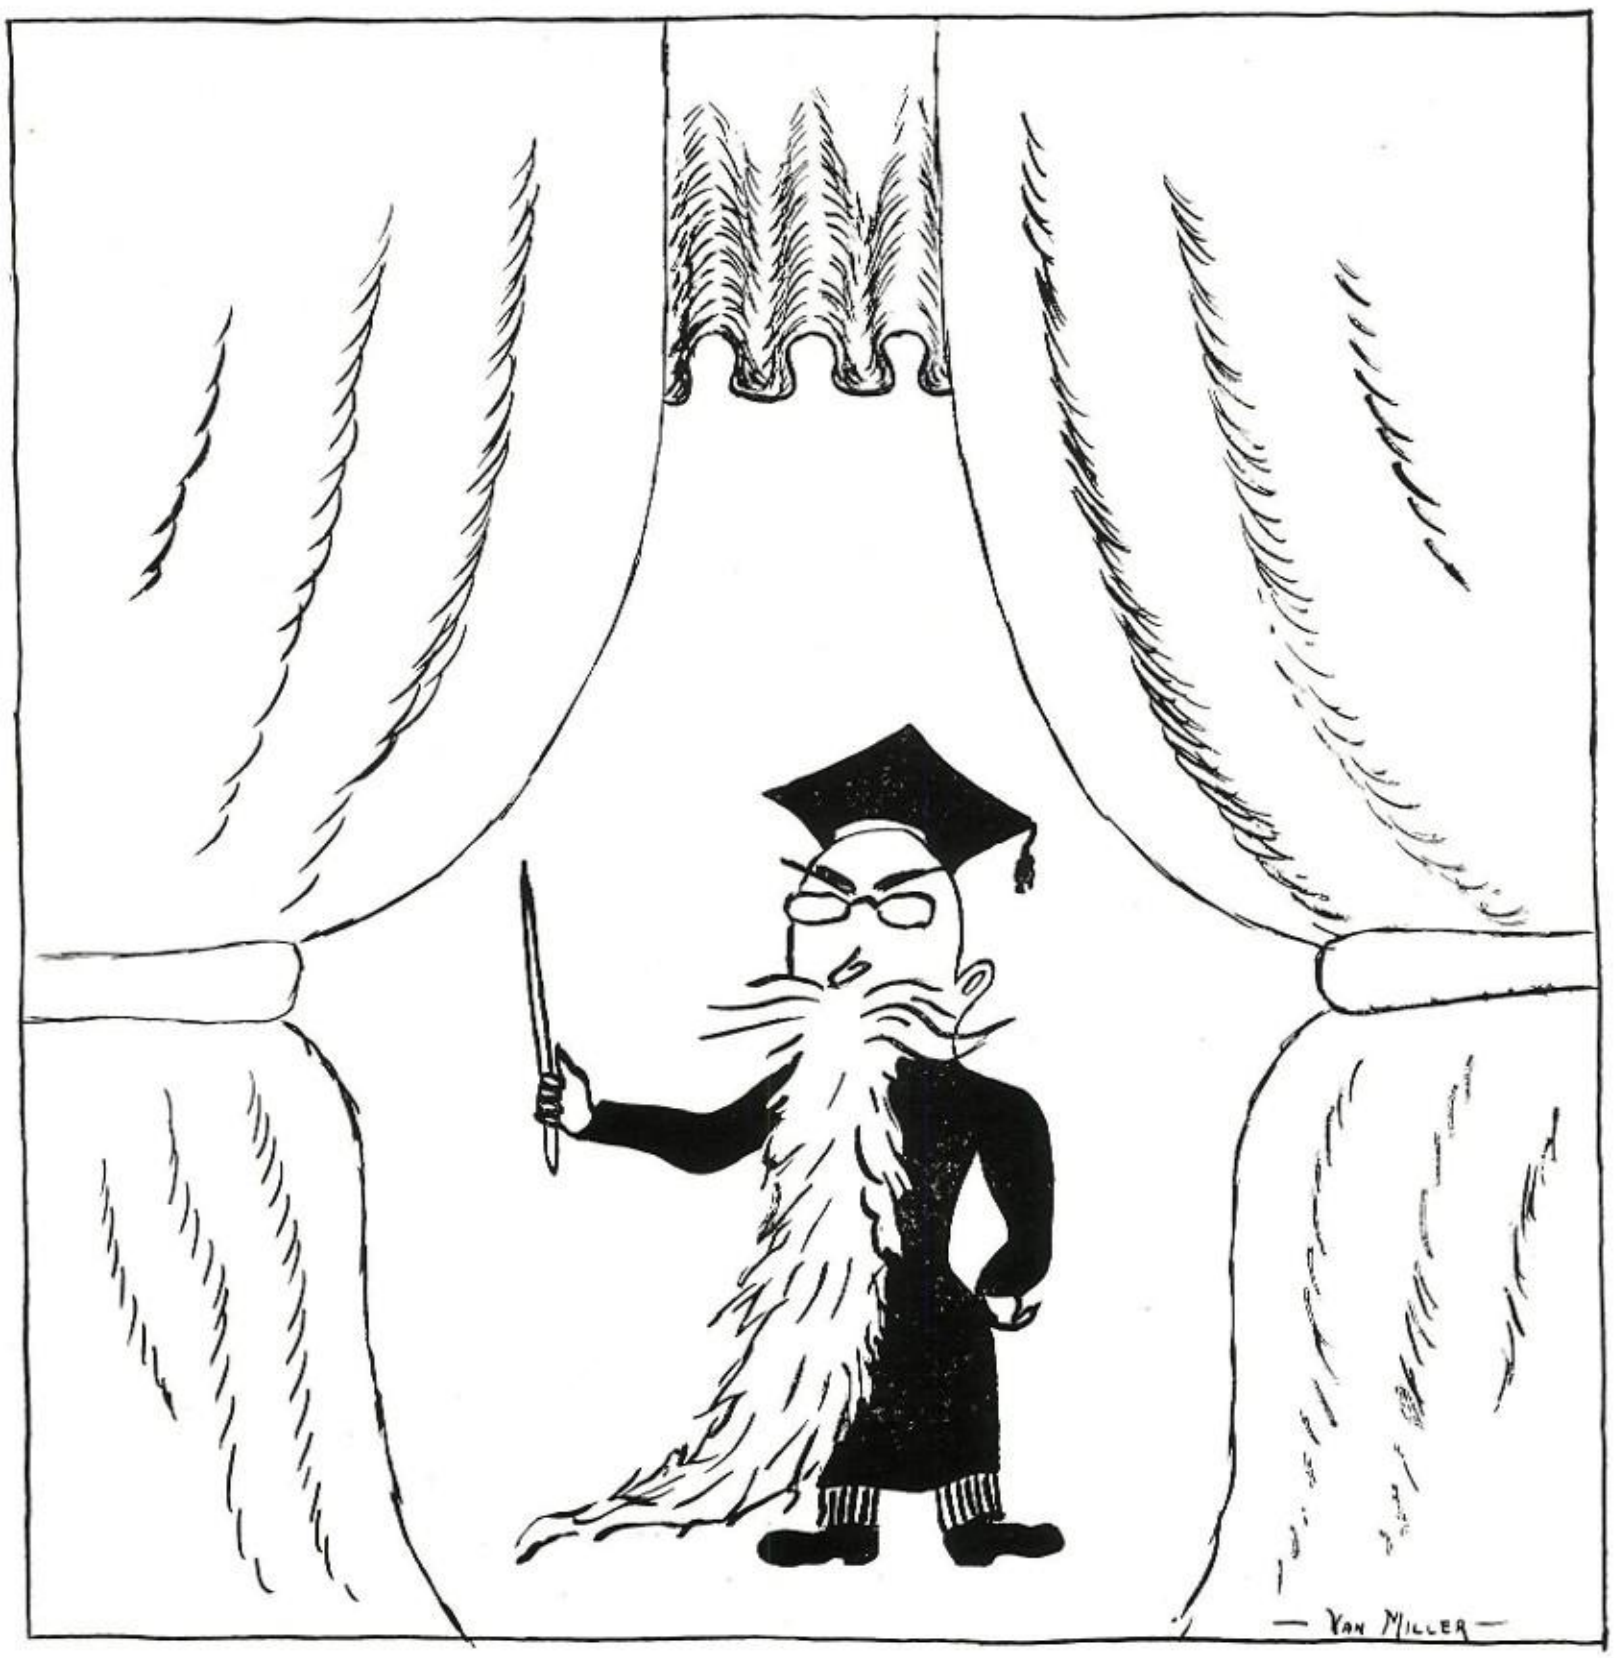
Here's to our dear old Lebanon High,
Here's to her red and blue,
Here's to her representatives,
Her valiant sons so true.
Here's to the proud old flag she flies,
Red and blue with L. H. S.
All of our toasts, and not to boast,
Are for Lebanon High's success.

Once more we drink that faithful toast
To dear old Lebanon High;
Again her sons will win the day
While we cheer to the sky.
When once we leave that dear old school,
We surely can't forget
That L. H. S., her red and blue,
Are always with us yet.

Oh, dear old High, Old Lebanon High,
The school we can't forget;
Those student days in Lebanon High
Around about us yet.
Old Lebanon High, her red and blue,
All through the many years,
//That cup of youth, so good, so true,
Will fill our eyes with tears.//

Act I

ADMINISTRATION



DR. BOLAN

Our superintendent of schools—and we speak of him in the possessive because he has accompanied us, the Class of '49, through the major part of our school career—is a man of character and determination. He is constantly striving for improvement. Even in short talks with him, one can readily ascertain that it is improvement for the student that is his foremost desire. It was a stroke of good fortune for us when he came to Lebanon, and a better stroke of fortune that he chose to remain with us. For his efforts in our behalf we, the Class of 1949, are happy to accept this opportunity of expressing our sincere appreciation.

PRINCIPAL

TO YOU, THE 49'ERS OF
LEBANON HIGH SCHOOL:

I extend my best wishes for your future well-being, together with appreciation for your contributions to your school during the past three years.

Please reserve in your busy life a proper niche for nurturing the friendships you have discovered here with each other and with your friends of the faculty.

Mr. Norman A. Hemperly, b.s.
Lebanon Valley College

VICE PRINCIPAL

The class of 1949 through its many achievements has enriched the heritage of Lebanon High School.

Your class has talents and abilities. With abilities come responsibilities. May you therefore continue to be leaders and to use wisely your influence as educated citizens to view the new and amazing future with an emotional calmness that will prevent others from becoming victims of the hysteria and despair so prevalent in the world today.

I extend my best wishes for success in your various endeavors and hope that in some future moment of idleness, a luxury in the busy life that will be yours, you will reflect upon our many pleasant experiences together.

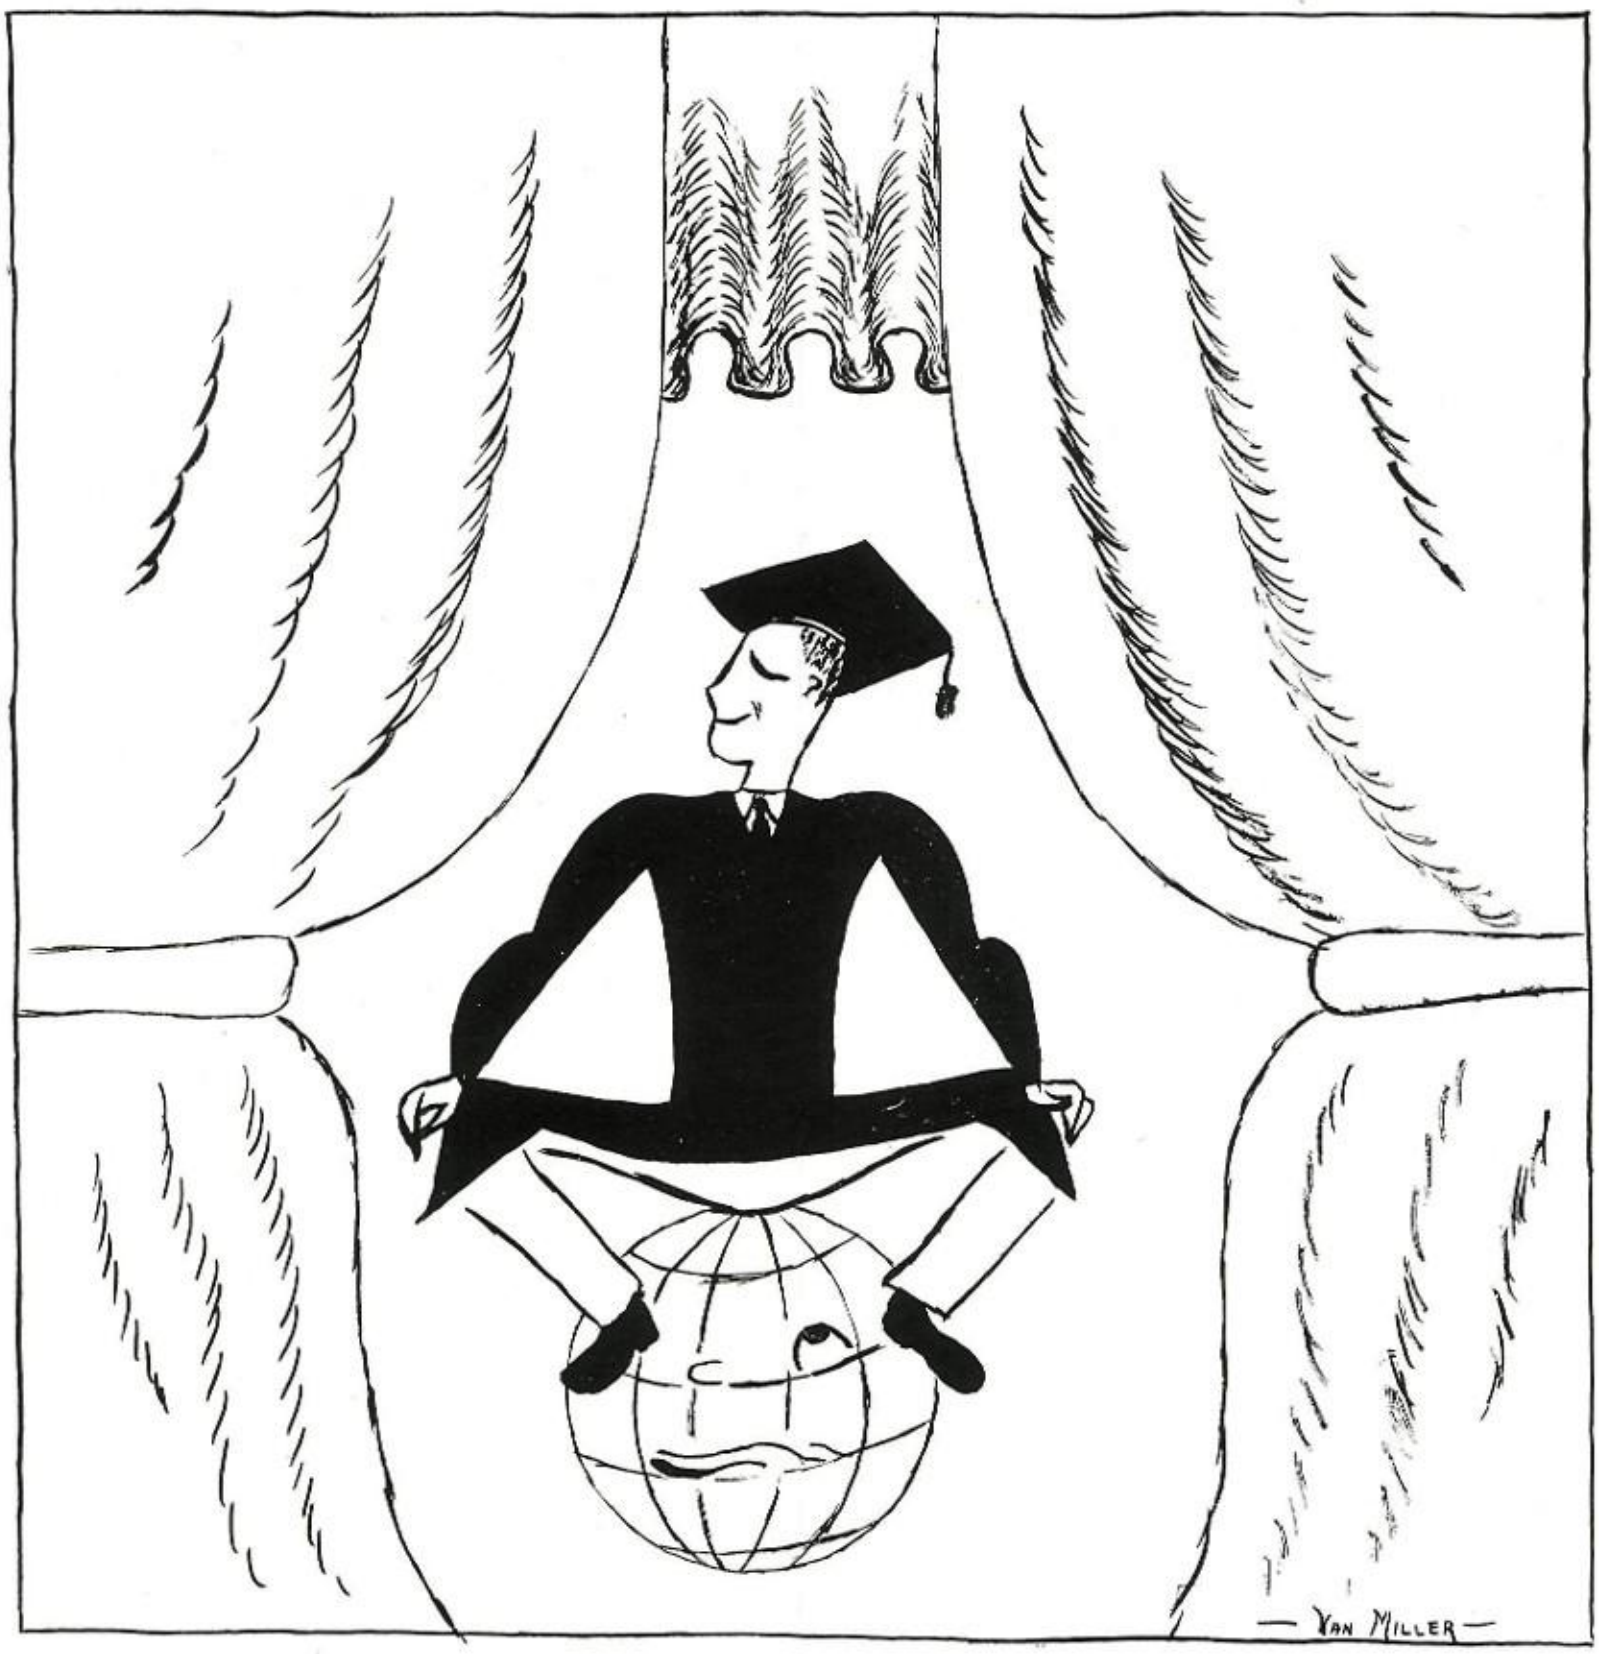
Act II
SENIORS



SUCCESS

If I can greet all with a smile
And walk with them the second mile
And live the things that I profess,
Then I have truly found success.

If I can do my daily work
And face all tasks without a shirk,
If my ambition is to progress,
Then I have truly found success.

Then when my last day I have reached,
And on the shore of life I'm beached;
If I can look back without regret,
It's then success I must have met.

WORDS

I always like to listen to
The words that people use,
And know when they're happy and when they're blue
From the expressions that they choose.

Some will use language that's timid and meek,
While others are quite a bit bolder;
But the words that I'll take any day in the week
Are the words that come straight from the shoulder.

MARILYN GINGRICH

MUSIC

Sometimes loud, sometimes soft,
Music sets one's soul aloft.
Expression of joy, expression of sorrow,
Music will live beyond tomorrow.

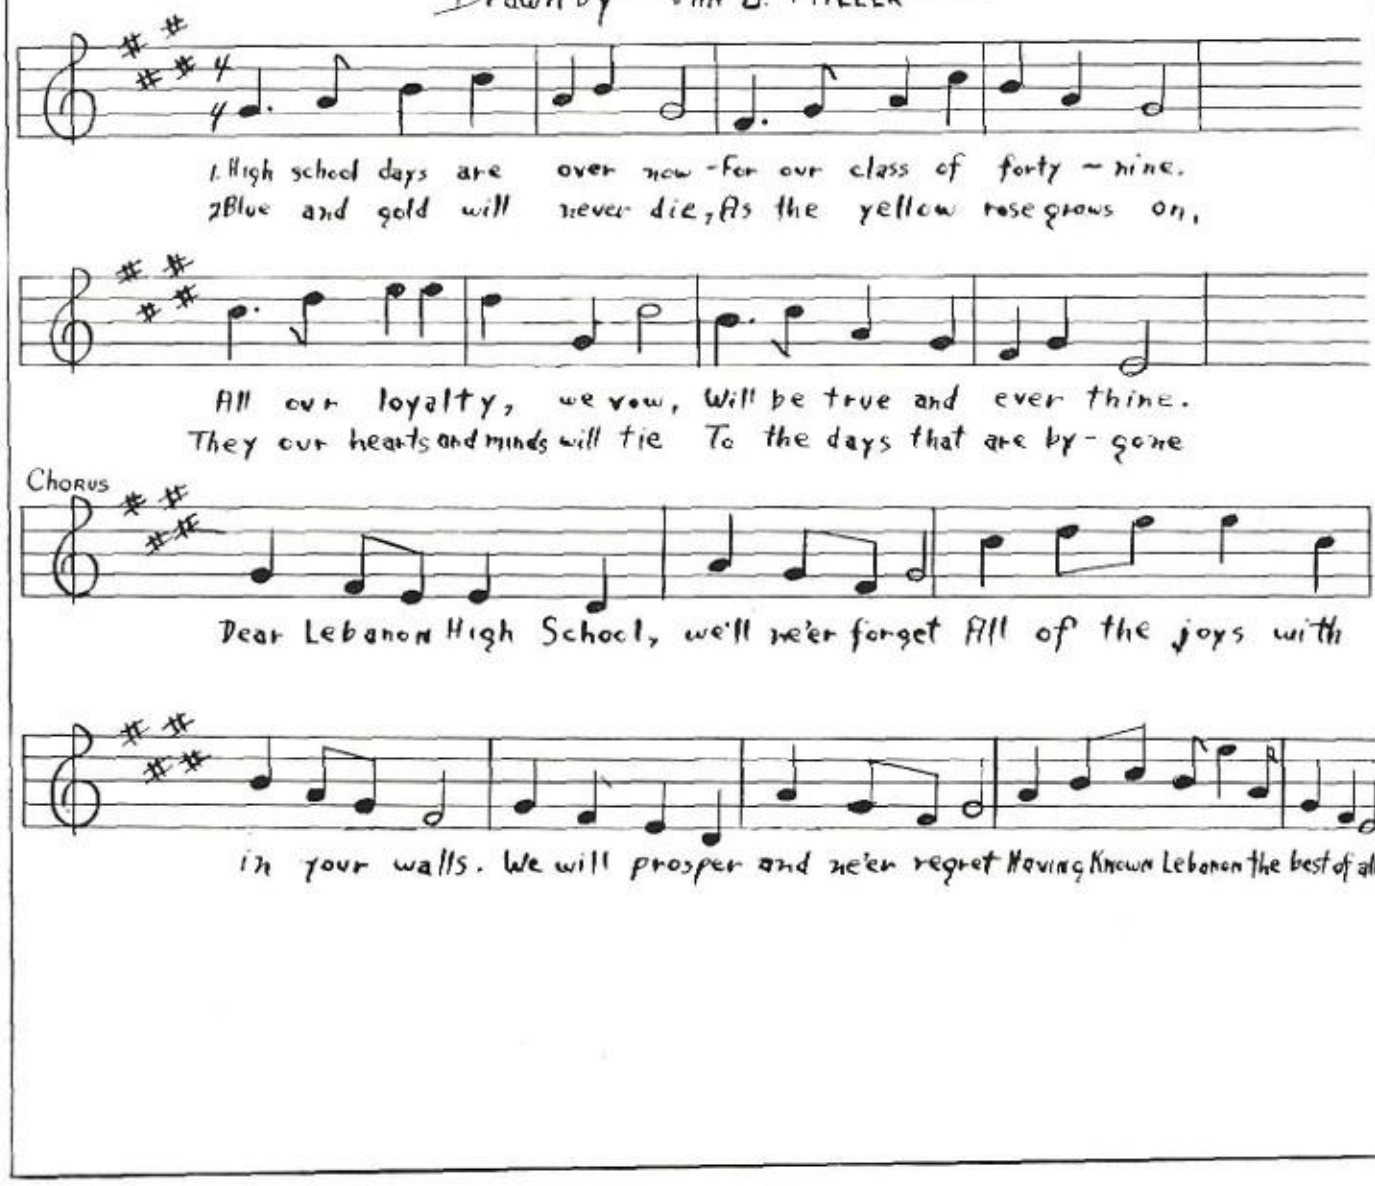
Viola, piano, organ, and bell—
All have their own emotional spell.
Played by band, sung by choir,
Music will always souls inspire.

NANCY CRAMER

Music By Thomas Israel
Lyrics By Dorothy Gingrich

Class Song of '49

Drawn by —Van S. Miller II—



1. High school days are over now - For our class of forty - nine.
2 Blue and gold will never die, As the yellow rose grows on,
All our loyalty, we vow, Will be true and ever thine.
They our hearts and minds will tie To the days that are by - gone
Chorus
Dear Lebanon High School, we'll ne'er forget All of the joys with in your walls. We will prosper and ne'er regret Having Known Lebanon the best of all.

UNDERCLASSMEN

ADVICE TO UNDERCLASSMEN

O juniors, sophomores, hear our plea—
Get nothing lower than a "C";
Do all your homework every night;
Do it right with all your might.

Consider your teachers every day;
Provoke them not with what you say.
They are there to teach and guide you;
So to yourself and them be true.

O underclassmen, take advice—
Keep homework neat and most concise.
Show proper conduct when in school;
Obey requests and every rule.

If all these hints you will obey,
And do these things from day to day,
Your schooldays will be joyfully spent,
And in your heart you'll be content.

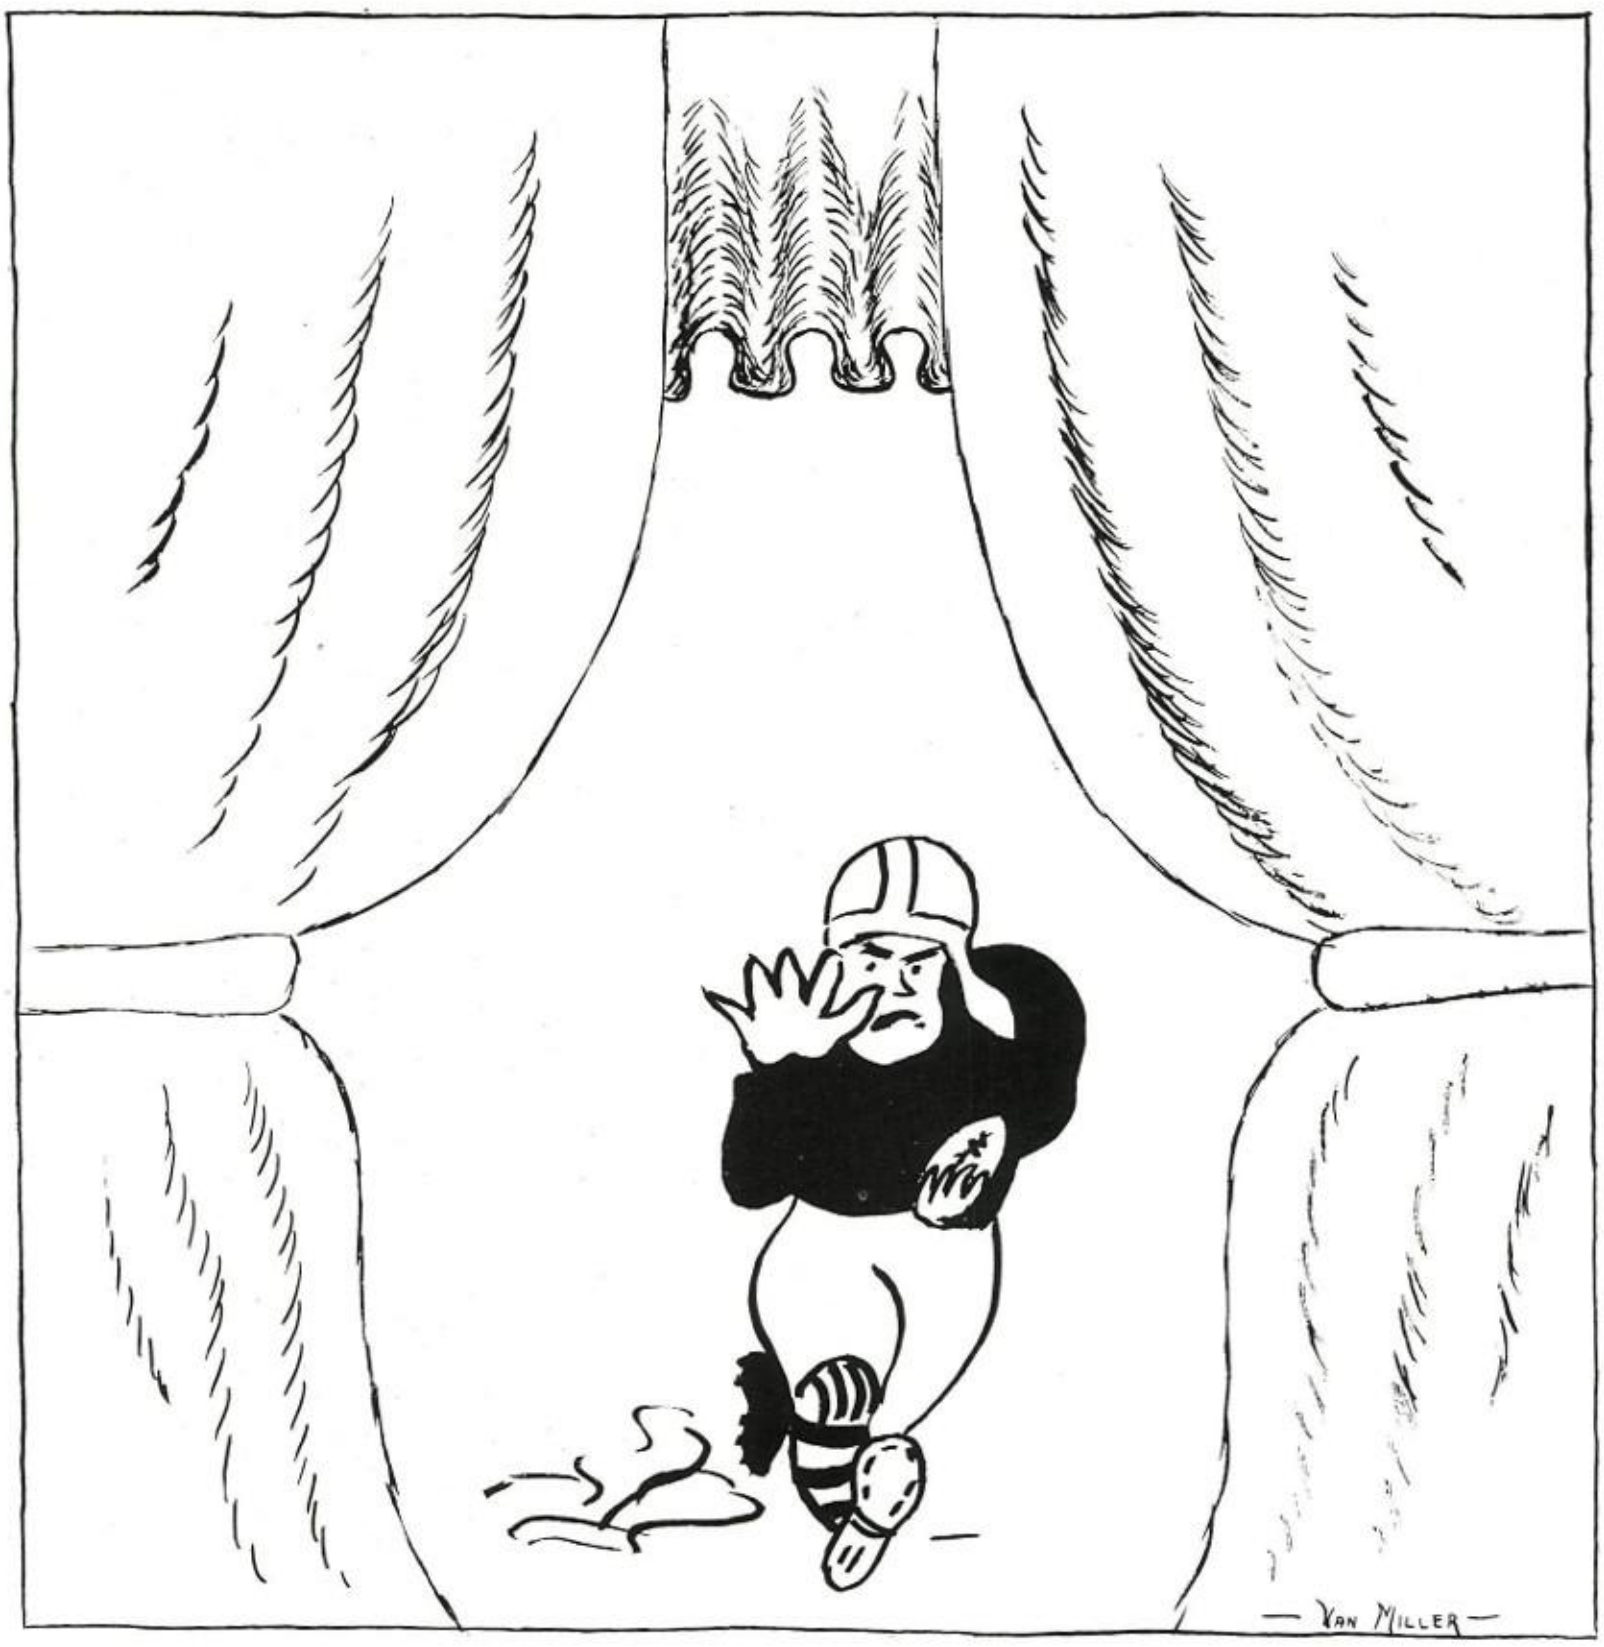
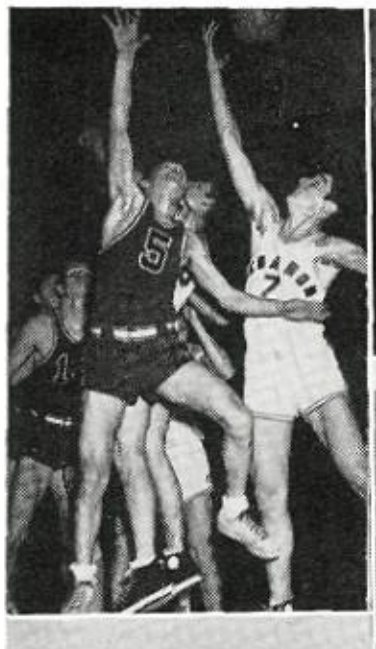
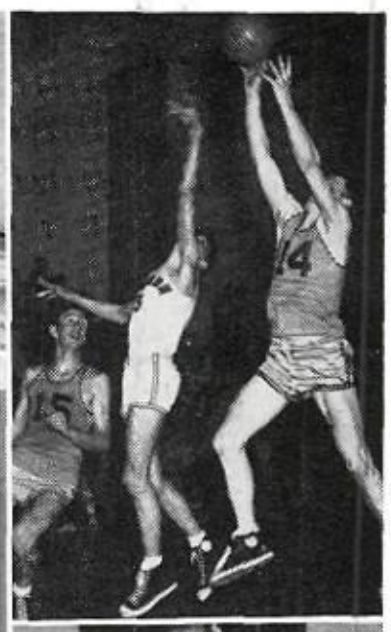
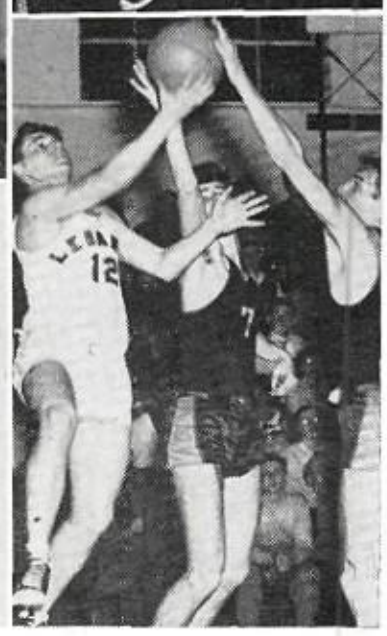
ATHLETICS









WE WANT A TOUCHDOWN

The Lebanon High School Varsity Football Team of 1948 finished the season with a record of four wins and six losses . . . Won three and lost four League games . . . fourth place in League standing . . . The pre-season "toughening up" process bus trip to Camp Greble . . . Two delightful weeks under a cool late August sun . . . On several occasions practice curtailed because of the "bitter cold" often experienced at that time of year . . . As a rule, though, the vigorous three-hour daily practice was carried out . . . plus nightly blackboard talks . . . An abundant supply of nourishing food available at all times . . . nine o'clock ice cream treats . . . Week ends were devoted to presentations of natural talent of the team members . . . Movies shown . . . church attendance for all denominations . . . Swimming enjoyed every day . . . games held to lighten the burden of time . . . All underclassmen are looking forward to next year's camp . . . many graduating members have expressed their sorrow at losing such a fine "vacation."

Well, another year, another Lodestone! . . . Let's take a look into homeroom 302 . . . ever hear so much noise? . . . the commotion is characteristic of a hard-working staff getting things done in their usually noisy way . . . Gloria Sipe and "Bugs" Wise worked diligently during summer vacation, planning for this year's new and original yearbook . . . business manager Tom Behney assiduously shuffled pictures and busied himself about many things . . . the art staff, under the able direction of Van Miller, spared no efforts in order to provide the clever illustrations which give animation to the various articles . . . the literary staff, expertly guided by Miss Ross and Miss Hoffman, used their word wealth lavishly to make the Lodestone a success . . . one could see the commercial staff, steered by Loretta Bayler, spending busy class hours and long sessions after school typing to meet deadlines . . . A meeting or two called by Miss Ross and Miss Nichols, where gentle reminders of write-ups or assignments long over-due were given, was scheduled as a matter of course . . . At times the staff had its lighter moments and showed so much exuberance that Miss Nichols threatened to write a play entitled "Murder in 302" with Geoffrey Sowers as the tragic victim . . . Despite all the difficulties, hindrances, and hard work encountered from day to day, the group survived, in time to present to subscribers what is hoped is a memorable yearbook . . . In closing, homeroom 302 says orchids to Miss Nichols for all the patience, helpfulness, and understanding she showed her amateur journalists throughout the school year.
